Parental permission

I give permission for my son to attend Joint youth weekend 13-15th March/daughter 2009 and to participate in all activities. I will inform the leaders of any important changes to my child's health, medication or needs.

In the event of illness or accident, having parental responsibility for the above named child, I give permission for first aid to be administered when considered necessary by a trained first aider, if available, and/or medical treatment to be administered by a suitably qualified medical practitioner.

If I cannot be contacted and my child should require emergency hospital treatment, I authorise an adult leader to sign on my behalf any written form of consent required by the hospital. However, I understand that every effort will be made to contact me as soon as possible.

PHOTOS/VIDEO CLIPS: During the trip photographs/video of your child may be taken at activities connected with the above trip. These may be used for general purposes within the Church, in the media, on the Church and organisation web-sites, posters, brochures and other printed material. Unless indicated otherwise, I give permission for my child to be photographed and videoed for the above purposes. WHAT TO EXPECT....

It's that time of year again when we leave all of our worries behind and retreat to the beautiful place that is Castlewellan Castle!

This year you are Wanted! It is going to be As Good As It Gets! Our theme is 'Weekend at the Movies'. Saturday will take us Into The Wild and will require you to have a Brave Heart as you will be taking part in Scottish Highland Games! They will be Fast and Furious so you must come prepared to Never Back Down!

When Darkness Falls on Saturday, the evening will bring us The Battle Of Britain-Scotland vs. Ireland! Your senses will be put through The Ringer with many different challenges so prepare to be Bamboozled!

To finish off the evening we will have a Scottish Ceilidh! Bring your dancing shoes and be prepared to get moving!

In so many films that are made today, there is a common theme throughout. They are about finding that special something or someone that makes you happy, that gives your life meaning. It is nearly always about living life to the full; about making your life count.

Our speaker for the weekend is Andrew Gibson (Gibbo) who is a P.E. teacher at Grosvenor Grammar School. He has a lot to teach us all so come ready to listen and learn.

Seminars

- Mean Girls—jealousy, gossip, envy
- Pay It Forward—How the Bible makes a difference to how we live.
- The Notebook—Relationships
- I Am Legend—How to live life to the full and make a difference

There is a high demand for places on the weekend, so get your booking form and money into us as quickly as possible to avoid disappointment. Also, as an added incentive, if you belong to a Knock Youth Organisation and you bring a friend who does not belong to an organisation, you can deduct £5 off your cost. It will be a fantastic weekend and we don't want you and your friends to miss out!

Don't delay, book today

Cost for one child per family is £55, for two per family £100 and for three per family £150.

If you have any question please don't hesitate to ask.
